APC Programs

Rarefied Light

APC sponsors and organizes Rarefied Light, an annual, statewide, Juried Photographic Fine Art competition, open to all Alaska residents. Each year, a nationally recognized artist travels to Alaska to jury the competition. Out of nearly 700 submissions statewide, approximately fifty pieces are selected for exhibition. Following an opening reception in Anchorage, which includes a small selection of the juror's own work, the exhibition travels around the state, enabling access to a wider audience of some of the best fine-art photography being created in Alaska.

Clark James Mishler

Rarefied Light Workshop

In addition to the exhibit, APC hosts the Rarefied Light workshop, led by the juror. Workshop topics are varied, but typically provide attendees the opportunity to share their own work and benefit from the advice of the visiting artist. Past jurors have included such prominent figures as Chris Rainier, Linda Connor, Michael Kenna, Judith Golden, Keith Carter, Huntington Witherill, Martha Casanave, Ryuijie, Susan kae Grant, Robert Glenn Ketchum and Alaska's own Clark James Mishler and Barry McWayne.

Monthly Meetings

APC holds meetings on the third Tuesday of the month in the spring and fall at The Anchorage Museum at Rasmuson Center. Meetings take the form of portfolio presentations by members or invited guests, or technical demonstrations of interest to the membership. Meetings are free and open to the public.

Mini Workshops and Lectures

APC holds mini workshops during the winter on such varied topics as digital monochrome printing, Photoshop tips and techniques, and the art of making books. APC also sponsors lectures by visiting artists and jurors for Alaska Positive such as Michelle Dun Marsh, Ralph Gibson and Patrick Nagatani.
